Bring your favourite Anglican or Lutheran
Pot-luck dishes!

Please note: This will be the only service in the Lutheran and Anglican churches of South Dundas on October 30.

In full communion with:

Declaration of Full Communion:

We declare the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada and the Anglican Church of Canada to be in full communion.

Commitments:

As churches in full communion, we now commit ourselves:

- to welcome persons ordained in either of our churches to the office of bishop, priest/pastor or deacon to serve, by invitation and in accordance with any regulations which may from time to time be in force, in that ministry in the receiving church without re-ordination;
- to invite one another's bishops to participate in the laying on of hands at the ordination of bishops as a sign of the unity and continuity of the Church, and to invite pastors and priests to participate in the laying on of hands at the ordination of pastors or priests in each other's churches;
- to consult with one another regarding developments in our understanding of the ministry of all the baptized, including the ordained ministry;
- to work towards a common understanding of diaconal ministry;
- to establish appropriate forms of collegial and conciliar consultation on significant matters of faith and order, mission and service;
- to encourage regular consultation and collaboration among members of our churches at all levels, to promote the formulation and adoption of covenants for common work in mission and ministry, and to facilitate learning and exchange of ideas and information on theological, pastoral, and mission matters;
- to establish a Joint Commission to nurture our growth in communion, to coordinate the implementation of this Declaration, and report to the decision-making bodies of both our churches;
- to hold joint meetings of national, regional and local decision-making bodies wherever practicable, and
- to continue to work together for the full visible unity of the whole Church of God.

Conclusion:

We rejoice in our Declaration as an expression of the visible unity of our churches in the one Body of Christ. We are ready to be co-workers with God in whatever tasks of mission serve the Gospel. We give glory to God for the gift of unity already ours in Christ, and we pray for the fuller realization of this gift in the entire Church.
